Attention: Safety Committee

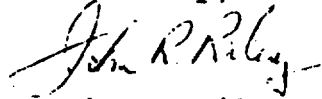

Gentlemen:

We are in receipt of your letter requesting data regarding the proper handling procedures for the products we supply to the feed industry.

Since our products are flavors and aromatics there are no special precautions which need to be followed. Therefore, we do not feel that flavors should be listed in any product safety material.

If there is any way that we can be of further service, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

John R. Riley
Executive Vice President

Dear Ms. Fay Linden:

Please be advised that we are sales agents for our suppliers. All of our suppliers are members of AFMA and therefore would be able to answer your questions in your letter dated November 6, 1981, much better than we would be.

We hope this is satisfactory and if you have any further questions please let us know.

Sincerely yours,

Jeanne T. Knight
